

WEBINAR

How to Select and Implement a New ELA Curriculum

Leaders from Two Charter Schools Share Their Expertise

WHEN

Tuesday, February 26, 2019
3:30–4:30 PM Pacific Time

REGISTER

This webinar is free, but you must register to attend. Visit bit.ly/chartersFeb26 to register.

Everyone who registers will receive the webinar recording.

QUESTIONS?

Please contact Megan Green at mgreen@collaborativeclassroom.org.

ABOUT THE WEBINAR

Selecting and implementing the right ELA curriculum can lead to transformational change in student literacy. What selection and implementation processes will set you up for success? In this webinar, Lisa Shugart of KIPP Bay Area Public Schools and Dana Cilono of Education for Change Public Schools will share their experience in selecting and implementing Collaborative Literacy as their ELA curriculum. Participants will learn about:

- The instructional challenges that led them to seek a new ELA curriculum
- The curriculum review and selection process they undertook
- The reasons why they chose the Collaborative Literacy program
- The planning and strategies that led to successful implementation of the program
- The changes in student achievement and engagement they are now seeing

ABOUT THE FACILITATORS

Lisa Shugart is the Associate Director of Academics for KIPP Bay Area Public Schools. Lisa has served grades PK-8 in both charter and public schools. Her work has focused on ELD, literacy, instructional coaching, and academic leadership.

Dana Cilono is the Early Elementary Director for Education for Change Public Schools. For the last 4 years, she's worked to drastically change literacy outcomes in grades TK-2.